About This Content

Revamp your heroes and find new ways to play and compete in The Last Stand with these new Wargear pieces.
Ursidae Trophy (Accessory)

This inspiring mantle grants two traits. The first is Inspired Will which increases the health of all of the General's infantry. The second is Superior Provisions which drastically increases the health of the General's turrets. Pretty simple but effective and it looks badass.
Ornate Vostroyan Shotgun (Two handed weapon)

So of course if we give the General a bear pelt we have to give him the gun he used to shoot said bear. This shotgun allows the general to carve through mobs of infantry with its AOE attack a little easier than some of his other weapons. It also comes with a Solid Slug ability which will do high single target damage for those pesky Wraithlords and Warbosses.
